HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

The Hibernian Social Club realized a nice sum from their recent lawn euchre and lotto.

San Diego is preparing for the biggest State convention the order ever held in California.

San Francisco Hibernians are making an aggressive campaign to secure the 1918 convention.

The big event of the Fourth in Boston was the Hibernian field day carnival at the National League baseball grounds.

The meeting of Division 4 will be held next Tuesday evening instead of Monday on account of the Dominican church picnic.

Mrs. John Arthur, Indiana State President of the Ladies' Auxiliary, would be an excellent addition to the National Directorate.

Division 3 of Rome, N. Y., enjoyed a banquet as a result of the membership contest, which closed with fifty-one candidates.

Every military company in California was invited to compete in the military tournament and field day of the San Francisco Hibernian Rifles.

A big night parade and entertainment, banquet and grand ball will be featured at the Ohio State convention at Zanesville, which will last three days.

The Hibernians of Rome, N. Y., presented the Boy Scouts with a handsome American flag, Rev. P. A.
Kelly accepting for the scouts.
Father Kelly is Scoutmaster.

New Albany Hibernians and the Ladies' Auxiliary have begun making arrangements for their annual reunion and picnic, which will be held at Glenwood Park on August 16.

The flag of the Irish republic, presented Mrs. O'Donovan Rossa on the occasion of her husband's funeral in Dublin, will float over the convention headquarters at Boston.

MOBILE'S PROTEST.

Shooting of the leaders of the Dublin uprising by the English Government on May 3, after having promised them protection as prisoners of war, was condemned and protested against as "wanton brutality" by a mass meeting of many citizens of Mobile as Americans in the Lyric Theater Monday night. The meeting, which was called by the Ancient Order of Hibernians, was largely attended, and much patriotic sympathy for Ireland was shown.
George J. Sullivan presided. After addresses by Father Joseph V.
Molloy, of the Cathedral parish, and H. Ambrecht, former United States District Attorney, and several musical selections, resolutions were introduced by John C.
O'Connell and unanimously passed.
A collection for the support of the widows and orphans of the Irish dead was taken as the assembly passed out. When Father Molloy was introduced he was given a great ovation. Those who had charge of the arrangements were Rev. T. J.
Eaton, J. E. McHugh, W. J. Armstrong, John A. Hughes, J. A. Ryan and M. T. Judge.

GOOD TOBACCO YEAR.

Thomas Cook, of Taylorsville, the well known farmer and tobacco buyer of Taylorsville, was here this week and reported that this has been a banner year in the tobacco line and that it had been one of the best in his career. Mr.
Cook is one of the leading Democrats in his section and is thoroughly conversant with the present political situation, his predictions on the coming national race being verified from the present outlook.
Before going home Mr. Cook visited his brother, L. J. Cook, at Brooksville, for a few days.

ATTRACTIVE FEATURE.

One of the attractive features of the entertainment that will be provided for the visitors at the Superior convention of the Knights of Columbus in Davenport, Iowa, will be furnished by the celebrated Knights of Columbus Choral Club of St. Louis. This unique singing organization, the only one of its kind within the order, has been engaged to take a prominent part in several of the musical offerings that will stand out prominently in the four days' programme. The singers appear in concert in their white serge uniforms, presenting a magnificent appearance, and they also have a marching club that brings them additional attention from an interested public.

GOOD MAN GONE.

William E. Holley, Clerk of the Police Court and one of the most popular men in Louisville, died early Tuesday morning at St. Jaseph's Infirmary, following an illness of only a few days of peritonitis. He was the son of the late Patrick Holley and was thirty-six years old and unmarried. Will Holley's death came as a shock to his legions of friends throughout the city and in Police Court circles caused deep gloom. One of St. Jaseph's parochial school boys, the deceased completed his education at St. Xavier's College, from where he went to the Louisville & Nashville railroad, where his meritorious work caused his promotion to Chief Clerk of the Auditor's office. Resigning in 1909 to enter the political game, he was successful and in 1913 was elected Clerk of the Police Court, and since was looked upon as one of the most influential of the younger politicians of the city. He was noted for his acts of charity and his willingness at all times to favor anyone seeking his assistance. He was a member of the Mose Green Club, Knights of Columbus, Columbia Athletic Club, St. Vincent De Paul Society of St.

Charles Borromeo church, the Twelfth Ward Democratic Club and the Social Democratic Club of the Fourth and Fifth wards. Surviving him are his sister, Mrs. Charles Rieger, with whom he made his home; a half brother, Michael Holley, and a number of other relatives.

The funeral was held Thursday morning from St. Charles church, where it was thronged with people from all parts of the city and all walks of life. Rev. Father Raffo celebrated the requiem mass, and in his funeral discourse paid feeling tribute to the life and works of the deceased, who was true to his friends and loyal to his church.

K. OF C. ENTERTAINMENTS.

The local council Knights of Columbus will hold a smoker for the members next Wednesday evening, and on Thursday evening, July 27, there will be a euchre, lotto and 500 party at Seening's Park for the benefit of the members and their families or company.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES.

At the National Conference of Catholic Charities, which will be held in Washington, D. C., on September 17, 18, 19 and 20, the sermon at the opening of the conference will be preached by Bishop Tihen, of Lincoln, Neb.

CALLED TO COLORS.

Reports from various cities show that more than 1,000 members of the Knights of St. John have been called to the national colors, to serve in the impending trouble with Mexico with the militia of their home States.

WORLD'S HIGHEST CROSS.

The highest cross in the world will soon be taken down and replaced by a new one. The cross on the steeple of the Annunciation church at Leadville, Col., is called the highest cross in the world because, besides standing 161 feet from the ground, it is situated in the highest incorporated town in the world.

BISHOP McCORT.

The Right Rev. John J. McCort, D. D., Auxiliary Bishop of Philadelphia, just appointed Bishop of Monterey and Los Angeles, Cal., is well known in the United States as a soldier and writer. He was born in 1860 and educated at St. Charles Theological Seminary, Overbrook.
In 1883 he was ordained to the priesthood, and in 1912 was appointed Auxiliary Bishop of Philadelphia. He is also a member of the archdiocese of Philadelphia as well as Vicar General of Philadelphia and titular Bishop of Azote.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Late News That Will Interest Members Here and Elsewhere.

The new council at Jackson, Cal., starts well.

The Kansas membership now totals nearly 7,000.

Omaha Knights will give the orphans of that city a picnic.

Colorado Springs is preparing for the State convention to be held there next May.

Many councils will pay the dues and insurance of members who are going to the front.

The Knights of Omaha are busy arranging for a big increase in membership in October.

The Knights of Fond du Lac, Wis., will erect a $65,000 club house on Sheboygan street.

Denver Knights are organizing a company to be ready to respond to the first call for volunteers.

Seventy-eight candidates became members last month at Waterloo, Iowa, the largest class for several years.

The council at San Mateo, Cal., is making fine progress. Last month forty candidates were given the major degree.

The Knights of Albion, Neb., had a most enjoyable time and initiation when fifty-five candidates were given three degrees.

Kansas Knights are looking after the establishment of a fraternity center for Catholic students at Lawrence and Manhattan.

A special feature of the Fourth of July picnic at Denver was the ball game between priest and lawyer members of the council.

The only celebration at Utica, N.
Y., on the Fourth, was held by the Knights, who secured a band and gave a concert and fireworks display on the club house grounds, the public being admitted free.

GARRITY HELPS CHARITY.

A document was filed recently in the County Clerk's office at Corsicana, Texas, in which Capt.
James Garrity, of that city, sets apart out of his estate a "public charity fund of $100,000 in cash, to be used for the relief, betterment and improvement of any indigent poor persons residing in Navarro county, who are worthy objects of charity, to be selected by the trusttees, hereafter named, without regard to race, color, sex or religious belief." It is required that the trustees shall "keep the funds invested in revenue-bearing real estate or interest-bearing securities, or in State, county, city or district bonds," etc.

HINTS ON STYLE.

Many pretty organdy frocks are lightly beaded.
Pale pink is everywhere in millinery as in frocks.
Net rivals organdy in summer lightness and modishness.
The big summer hats this season seem unusually successful.
Leghorn is much used and bent into all sorts of graceful hat shapes.
Pink organdies are particularly delectable and once more favorite with Parisian fashion makers.

Early fall serge and light weight wools are appearing, and they are splendid for coats of any and all kinds.

Sleeves are developing unending tendencies with the season's progress. They are all lengths and flares, puff, droop, flow and cling.
Quaint mantlets that give a most unusual touch to the simple summer costume are one of the season's most fascinating developments.

Taffetas are now epidemic.
Most delightful morning frocks are made up in tub silks, and with careful laundering they are not extravagant.
